

Podcasts as additional material to website - What They Can Teach Us

Epilogue Podcast Links:

- Epilogue Podbean Link
- Epilogue Spotify Link
- Epilogue Apple Link

Epilogue Presentation – link forthcoming

Presentation Slide 1 – Title: Introduces the podcast series "What They Can Teach Us" and its focus on German immigrant women in 1950s Canada.

Slide 2 – Why They Came: Presents the voices of Lisa, Barbara, and Anneliese, each sharing their personal reasons for emigrating to Canada in 1951.

Slide 3 – Life in the Late 1940s/Early 1950s: Explores the cultural landscape (music, film, fashion, food) that greeted new arrivals in post-war Canada and Germany.

Slide 4 – A Sliver of the Immigrant Experience: Broadens the lens beyond German women to acknowledge the diversity of immigration stories across cultures and decades.

Slide 5 – International and Individual: Reinforces that every immigration journey is unique, shaped by personal courage, historical context, and cultural identity.

Slide 6 – Your Family History Matters: Encourages students to explore their own family histories through interviews, archives, and community sharing.

Slides 8-10 – Credits & Podcast: Acknowledges project support, oral history sources, and directs students to the podcast series.

Slide 11 – Epilogue: Provides multimedia links (music, fashion film, Bollywood, Filipino music) that contextualize the era and broaden cultural understanding.